OFFICE OF THE SENIOR SURGEON WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE.

Bangalore, 27th July 1900.

Dear Mr. Balasundaram Iyer,

I have not as yet heard from the Comptroller as to the amount of allowances I am permitted to draw while officiating as Senior Surgeon & Sany. Commissioner.

In this connection I beg of you to be kind enough to place before the Government the fact that by the provisions of the Codal rules I am entitled to draw my present salary together with the local allowance attached to the appointment.

If this concession be graciously allowed to me I shall be ever

grateful to our benign Government.

I do not ask for any acting allowance and the local allowance but only for what I have been now drawing plus the local allowance. Any officer that actually does the duties of the Senior Surgeon and Sany.Commr., is entitled to the latter allowance.

Yours sincerely

Mr. P.S. Achyuta Rao has written to say that he has not received instructions from the Comptroller as to the salary he should draw as offg Senior Surgeon, with whose service I may request you to kindly let me know if there is any objection to Mr. Achyuta Rao being allowed to draw his present Salary viz Rs 700 (pay) + Rs 200 (Personal allowance) and also the local allowance attached to the office of Senr. Surgeon of Rs 500 a month for the period he officiates as Senior Surgeon during Lt. Col. Smyth's absence on privilege leave.

Comptroller's Office,

Bangalore, dated the 2nd August '10.

Dear Mr. Mylari Rao,

Your D.O. letter regarding the salary of Mr.P.S. Achyuta Rao as Officiating Senior Surgeon.

On one of the previous occasions on which Mr. Achyuta Rao was appointed to Officiate as Senior Surgeon, he was allowed his grade pay plus a local allowance of Rs.500/- by Government Order No.5262-4/Med.111-06-3 dated the 18th December 1906. On another occasion, he was regarded as on Special Duty in the Senior Surgeon's Office and was given his grade pay plus a Special Allowance of Rs.500/- also under Government Order No.9114/Med. 185-06-8 dated the 20th April 1907. The Personal Allowance of Rs.100/- he was in receipt of before he was appointed to officiate as Senior Surgeon was not given to him on both these occasions. But there is no technical objection objection to his being given now his personal Allowance of Rs.200/- in addition to the Local Allowance of Rs.500/- proposed to be given to him, so long as the latter allow--ance is not drawn by Colonel Smyth during his leave.

Yours sincerely,

allowance of 200 Rs will not merge in this. During the period of deputation, he will have perhaps to be considered as on special duty and given an allowance as on a previous occasion, which means extra expenditure to Govt. If the period of deputation be very short, Mr A Row may it seems revert to his own appointment and the personal Assistant to the S.S may look after the current routine work, till Col Smyth's return.

19. Col Smyth is to act on deputation in Bombay only pro tem. The acting arrangement may be ordered to take effect from the date on which Col Smyth's deputation ceases. It seems doubtful if he is entitled to any special allowance for that period. In the period during which Col Smyth is on privilege leave Mr Mehta need can draw the local allowance in addition to his own pay and personal allowance which cannot be drawn and local allowance does not form part of pay or fixed salary.

There seems to have been some confusion - Mr. Achyuta Rao can. under the rules continue to draw the local allce of Rs 500/- a month during Col. Smythe's short deputation - During deputation Col. Smythe cannot draw (vide Sec 57 M.S.R.) the local allce attached to the post of Senior Surgeon. He can draw the pay or salary of the appt. together with such deputation allce as Govt may sanction. In cases like this it is usual to bring up the Govt's emoluments to the level of those of this appt. by the grant of special deputation allowance; and Col Smythe may be allowed a Spl. deputation allce of Rs 500/- a month during the period of his deputation.

The only doubt was whether in the case of a local officer the local allowance should be the same as in the case of an I.M.S. officer. On two previous occasions however he was granted the full local allowance both the personal allowance which he was getting was stopped. According to the rules the personal allowance does not merge in the local allowance.

I shall agree to any decision which the Dewan may come to in this respect.
